5

PART I.

1. (1.) In the case of any holding to which the Land Law (Ireland) Act, 1881, applies, and which is valued under the Acts relating to the valuation of rateable property in Ireland at not more than thirty pounds a year, if it is proved to the satisfaction of the Irish Land Commission, in this Act referred to as "the Land Commission," on the application of either the landlord or the tenant of such holding,—

15 (a.) That the rent payable in respect of the year of the tenancy expiring on the last gale day of the tenancy in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one (which year of the tenancy is in this Act referred to as "the year expiring as aforesaid") has been satisfied; and

20 (b.) That antecedent arrears of rent are due to the landlord; and (c.) That the tenant is unable to discharge such antecedent arrears, the Land Commission may make an order for the payment to or for the benefit of the landlord of a sum equal to one half of such antecedent arrears, subject to the limitation that the sum so paid shall not exceed the yearly rent payable in respect of the holding for the year of the tenancy next preceding the year expiring as aforesaid.

25 (2.) On such order for payment to or for the benefit of the landlord being made by the Land Commission, all such antecedent arrears of rent shall be released and extinguished.

A.D. 1882.

(3.) All payments on account of rent made by the tenant to the landlord in or subsequent to the year expiring as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have been made on account of the rent payable in respect of that year, to the extent to which the rent for that year had at the time of such payment accrued due.

(4.) A remission of the whole or any part of the rent payable in respect of the year expiring as aforesaid shall be deemed to be a satisfaction of the amount of rent so remitted.

(5.) The Land Commission if satisfied on the occasion of any application made under this Act that it is just so to do, may authorize the tenant to pay to the Land Commission any sum due from him in respect of rent, and may direct that the payment of such sum shall be deemed to be made on account of the rent payable in respect of the year of the tenancy expiring as aforesaid, and the Land Commission shall cause any sum so paid by the tenant to be paid to the person appearing to such Commission to be entitled thereto as landlord.

(6.) Any money payable under this Act by the Land Commission to the landlord shall be paid to the person entitled as landlord without cost, except so far as may be caused by disputed title or by the person so entitled failing to comply with the rules for the time being in force relating to the payment of such money.

During the time limited for applications under this Act, any tenant evicted for nonpayment of rent whom the landlord does not agree to reinstate, but who is entitled to apply for a writ of restitution in pursuance of the seventy-first section of the Landlord and Tenant Law Amendment Act (Ireland) 1860, may apply to the Land Commission under this Act, and the Land Commission may make an order under this Act in the same manner as if the tenant had not been evicted, and on an application being made to the court having cognisance of the case for a writ of restitution, that court shall deal with the case as if the tenant had paid all arrears of rent up to the last gale day in the year expiring as aforesaid, but otherwise shall proceed in manner directed by the said Act of 1860:

Provided that an order of the Land Commission under this section shall not take effect until and unless the tenant is restored to his holding. A.D. 1882.
